Charlie Parker with Strings is a compilation album by jazz musician Charlie Parker, released by Verve Records in January 1995. It is based on recording sessions originally issued as two albums released in 1950 on Mercury Records. The sessions place Parker in the context of a small classical string section and a jazz rhythm section, rather than his standard bebop quintet.

Jordan, I didn't know you studied with Stefon! Well, now your (healthy) obsession with triads plus bass notes makes even more sense. I think my takeaway from this thread has been not so much that this is "the way" to analyze Parker (which you never claimed anyway) but more that trains of thought that can be considered "more modern" are not antithetical to the approach of bebop...
